

1st The Queen's Dragoon Guards Regimental Trust

CODICIL FORM

The QDG Regimental Trust is a registered charity that exists to support the serving Regiment, its families and its veterans. Annual grants to the Regiment support sports and adventurous training and fund its ceremonial and welfare needs. Through the Benevolent Fund, the Trust gives grants to serving or former QDG, KDG or Bays soldiers and to their families or dependents who are in need. The Heritage Trust is a separate charity and has its own codicil form on this website. It looks after the Regiment's artefacts, supports the Museum and is the guardian of the Regiment's history.

If you would like to help the Trust support YOUR Regiment you can do this easily by adding a codicil form to your existing Will. A Codicil is a supplement that alters or adds to an existing Will. Please keep your Codicil with your Will, in a safe place. You don't need this form if you haven't yet made your Will. For further information please contact HHQ.

How to complete the Codicil Form

1. Fill in your name and address and the amount you would like to leave the Trust in your Will. Use words and numbers for the amount. If you would like to leave a specific gift say what it is at C below.
2. Sign your name in the presence of two adult witnesses. Make sure that they are not a beneficiary or executor of your Will (or their wife or husband) and are not a Trustee.
3. Ask your witnesses to complete and sign the witness section. All must be present at this point.
4. You should then date the codicil opposite your signature where indicated.
5. Keep your Will and codicil together in a secure place, but do not attach the codicil to your Will, for example, with a paperclip. This may cause problems later.
6. Give a copy of your Will and codicil to an executor or close friend, with a note detailing the location of the original. It is important to ensure both the original Will and codicil remain together.
